

5 Internet SAFETY Rules FOR Teenagers

② Sharing personal information
Inappropriate messages can put kids at risk with strangers as well as friends. Once a message or picture is e-mailed or posted it's almost impossible to get it back. All messages (posts) remain on the Internet and become public.

① VIRUSES:

- Use only trusted browsers
- Don't go over questionable links.
- update UR Browser

③ Don't meet Online Friends.
STALKER
STALKERS usually get (event)
long pressure on the psyche
Gradually controlled on the

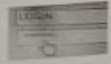

④ COMMUNICATION

- Be polite and decent in ur statements
- Don't SPAM
- Don't disclose your details

⑥ Use text as a source for additional knowledge. Don't trust strangers.
Don't show aggression.
Use your nickname.
Respect other users.
All in... Just have fun.
Good Title!

Don't give out personal information (home address, school name or phone number).

Never send pictures to servants.

Keep passwords private.
Escape from parents.

Don't download anything without permission, it may contain a virus that could be harmful to your computer.

Tell an adult if you receive a mean or strange message.

Don't accept requests from anybody you don't know in real life, even if you have multiple mutual friends.

Never agree to meet in person with someone that you met online

If you see any type of cyber bullying, don't respond or retaliate.

RULES OF SAFE BEHAVIOR ON THE INTERNET

5 Intern

SAFE
R
FOR T

Safe

5 - Internal SAFETY

Teenagers
(And All You)

Click here